PLEASE READ THE FOLLOWING CAREFULLY:

1. The systems in the lab will be backed up once a week. However: you are responsible for your own backups. We recommend a backup strategy based on duplicate, incremental backups. Please be aware that the DAT tapes that you should use for backups of accounts on the UNIX workstations should be compatible with the DAT drives.
2. The system managers of this facility will not be held accountable for lost data. They will operate under the assumption that all users back up their accounts/data routinely. If necessary, data that is more than 2 weeks old will be deleted from the hard drives without consulting the owner.
3. You will not allow anybody who is not an allowed user (check list in binder) to enter the room and use the computers.
4. You are not authorized to install software on any of the computers in the room. Please consult Ken Rutledge if you need to have software installed.
5. Some of the systems will be periodically unavailable for upgrades and repairs.
6. Submission of multiple background jobs on the UNIX systems is not acceptable unless the priority is set at a low enough level, such that the background jobs will not interfere with real-time use of the computer.
7. Use of the computers in this lab for any unlawful activity will be punished severely. It is your responsibility to be aware of the guidelines established by the University for lawful use of computers.

This signature implies that I have fully read and understand the guidelines issued to me about the use of the computer lab located in 122 Jenkins Hall.
